“ Mother.....You are special to me. You carried me in your womb, and you gave me life. You gave me a life only a mother who loved their child could...I often thanked you for what you done for me, and it had to be hard for you...I can't imagine how you felt. But I know you made all the best decisions for me, and again I thank you! I also feel an emptiness of the memories we didn't get to share, but we did have our own memories, and those I will never let go. I will miss our talks, walks, and your funny sense of humor....I know where I got a lot my my attributes, and personality from. You were and are a beautiful woman, inside and out. You deserved the best life, and even tho life was hard on you.... You served Jesus through it all! What an example that no matter the circumstances or what life throws your way that holding on to Jesus is the only way! Now you are with Jesus the very beat of your heart....you stand whole, and healthy, no more pain for eternity. With tears in my eyes I say SEE YA LATER.... because I will be there on that day to see you, and so many others I hold dear. My mother....I LOVE YOU. Teresa

“ My Mother was a strong woman. Both physically and spiritually. Her faith in God was wonderful. She walked many hard paths and endured much but.....great is her reward. She knew how to pray. She was caring and gave to help others. She had a forgiving heart. She brought joy to my life and showed me the ways of the Lord and how to pray.

Noone could ever replace the woman who has made such a great influence in my life and in molding me. She believed in morals and values and passed those down. Precious is my Mother. I love her unconditionally. She will always be my role model and I will miss her so much. I dont know how to begin facing a life without her here now til I join her. I enjoyed sitting and feeding my Mother. Its precious to me. I just wanna hear her say she loves me one more time. The challenge of adjusting to life without such a great woman will be a difficult task. Mom, never forget my promise to you. I will meet you there. Your face will always be carried within my heart. Precious will be the memories but right now....dark are the days. Yet, God is a great strength. I will look up in the sky everyday to see that youre there beyond the heavens in that city where theres no more pain. My heart will miss you until I see you again. Mom, I love you and miss you so much. I wish you were here with me but I know youre happy there with the Lord. Again.....I love you mom. Until we meet again.....Love your daughter, Tonya

I am so sorry to hear of Sue's passing. She was such a sweet soul. I know her children and grandchildren adored her, so I will be praying for peace and healing for everyone. God's blessings to everyone as you are enduring this difficult time.
