“ *My brother,
How I remember, the special times we had
As we were raised side by side
Sharing the good, as well as the bad*

*Some times we would disagree
As siblings sometimes do
But when we grew to be adults
Many times, I came to depend on you*

*Then, You heard the sweet voice of Jesus Gently calling your name
Holding out His loving arms
With Dad and Tracy at His side*

*I just couldn't bring myself
To come and say good bye*

*So now I say, See ya later
Dear Brother, Save a spot for me
In the beauty of God's Heaven
Where we're promised, the best is yet to be*

...

*I love you so, death can not change that
For I am your sister, and you, are my brother!*

“ if tears can build a stairway and memories a handrail
I'd walk right up to heaven and bring you home again
