“ Tom was a treasured friend for many years. He and Judi are the most fun of my friends. We share many good times. From our lunches at Arthur Trechur Fish and Chips in college to doing homework together at the college library. Fun times recently at a Middies game and all the good times in between. Tom was kind, funny, compassionate and a love of all people. His heart was open to Gods love and God has welcomed him. Rest in peace friend , you are missed 💕💕
