“ We met a long time ago in mayfield all hanging out with the crew and we lost touch and many years went by only seeing eachother at the stores and gas stations. I remember when you were telling me about your first baby being on the way how scared and excited you were. Im so sorry your gone T.J you were a wonderful friend and positive even when you felt negative. I wish we never grew apart i love you TJ Johnson. Rest in Peace sweetie you know how many love you and will never forget your beautiful smile.

“ I remember meeting TJ when we lived on Lamberton in mayfield. He spent lots of time with Rachael in the tree house out back. When we moved to Fernwood, TJ was there along with other friends, Hannah and Rachael, Lisa, and others hanging out in the basement. When we moved to Old Towne, TJ rode his bike over and hung out. I will always remember how TJ always had a smile and kidding around making everyone else laugh. I didnt know him as well as his friends new him because im older, but I have a knot in my throat and tears in my eyes. Many people love TJ. He is going to be missed sorley.
