“ We will all miss her so much, she always tried to lookout for her sisters an brothers when we were young. When she married she did same for her kids and new family always there for them. She was just a sweet heart. Oscar Martin

My Aunt Faye always had a way of making everyone feel special and that you were the only other person in the world. She was always smiling, pleasant and genuinely glad to see you. She has always been one of our most favorite people in the whole world and will be sorely missed. Like my Dad says, she was an absolute sweetheart. Allen and Joyce Martin

We live in Virginia and Faye lived here also until a dashing, red-haired sailor from Ohio came to Richmond from Norfolk while he was there on leave. This was typical behavior of sailors after WWII because they were looking for excitement and company. This young sailor, as my sister, Jean, who was also Faye's friend,tells the tale, met Faye when the two girls who had no money sneaked into a carnival through a hole in the fence and met Matt & a friend whose name my sister Jean does not remember. The rest is history and 3 more generations of Grigsbys. We spent yearly vactions with Matt & Faye many times. Our children, 7 total, are still close as they all have families and keep in touch. Faye and Matt helped make some of the best memories in our lives and the lives of our children. Sleep well, dear Sister, until we meet once more in a better world.
