“ The sweetest lady you could ever meet. She cared so much about her grandkids, great-grandkids, and great-great grandkids, and I'm so lucky to be one of them. I always found so much joy in coming home and having my mom tell me she asked about "her girl". She was so proud of me in whatever I did, and called my mom the day I took my drivers test to see if I got my license. So thoughtful and sweet. I love you so much grandma□

There is so many lovely moments we had with Aunt Wanda the most important for me that I will never forget was when she went to my parents house and ask for my hand in marriage to Tito and it was about 39 years ago that was the day that I knew she was going to be a very important person in my life and we didn't see each other to often but we talked on the phone I will miss her so much she meant the world to Tito and I loved her so much 🥹❤️🥹*

Wanda, an earthly life gone too soon, but God only takes the best to live with him in heaven!
We all will miss you and your lovely smile, your beautiful welcoming way you had with everyone. Our mother always loved you and thought so highly of you. May you both be joined together again now as the beautiful Christian Sisters you were here on earth. Sending love and prayers to you and all our families in God's beautiful home ❤️🙏❤️🙏
